Dear Fabian, Gerd and Wayne,

Re: Lithodat Pty Ltd
Financial Statement and Income Tax Return - year ended 30th June 2023

We enclose the Financial Statements and Income Tax Return for the year ended 30 June 2023, which we have prepared from the information provided by you.

Please review carefully and, if in order, have the returns signed where indicated electronically for lodgement with the Australian Taxation Office. Once signed, you can save a copy of the documents as a PDF for your records.

We estimate your tax payable or refund to be as follows:

Name	Amount	Payable/Refund	Lodgment Due Date
Lithodat Pty Ltd	($50,702.82)	Refund	15 May 2024

We also draw your attention to the attached "Notes for Persons Signing Income Tax Returns" and suggest you give careful consideration to the notes before signing the above return.

We stress that substantial penalties can be imposed under the Income Tax Assessment Act if your tax return is found to be incorrect or the required information to support your claims is not available. If, in the future, a Tax Office audit finds the return to be incorrect and imposes penalties, the penalties will accrue from the date of lodgement of the tax return.

It is vital that you retain all documentation supporting claims in your tax return. You must keep these documents for a period of 5 years.

Should you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours faithfully,
Scott Partners
